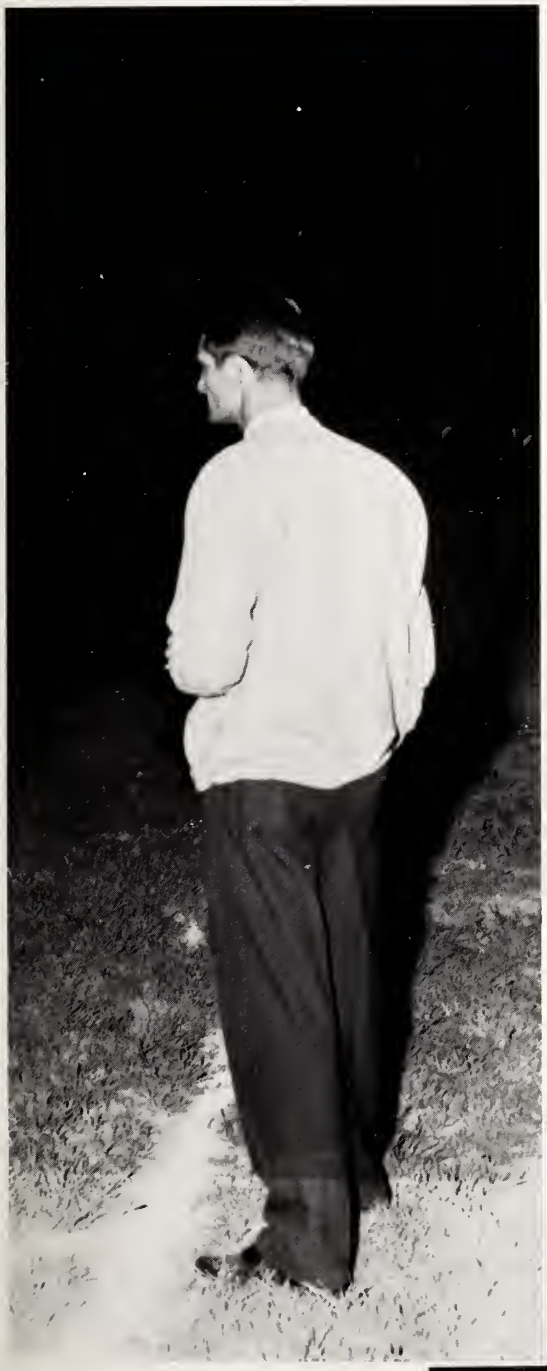
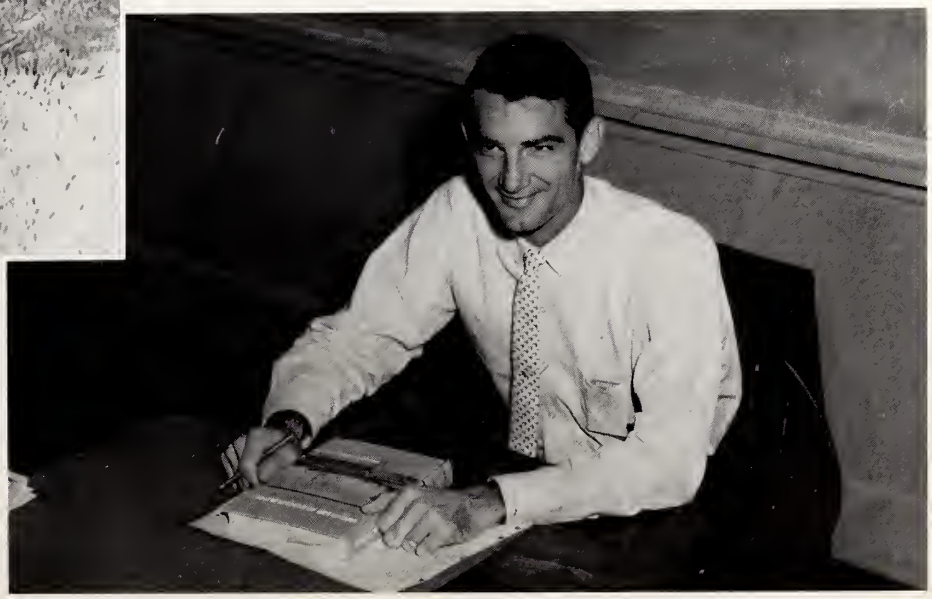
Our Dedication To:

Mr. Brent Braswell



From behind a map of the ancient Persian empire comes one who serves to inspire and build all whom he encounters. In the classroom his ancient worlds and their prehistoric men come alive. On the football field and basketball court, his exhibition of sportsmanship and sense of competition help instill in his players and their fans these same qualities. His friendliness and sense of humor make him ever popular with the students. And so, to him who has done so much to make so many wonderful and exciting memories, we give our greatest honor. We dedicate our 1964 Tar-bo-rah to Mr. Brent Braswell.



As our lives are founded on tradition, so do we constantly strive to grow, always looking forward but always remembering the past and its contributions, contributions made through both successes and failures. Our school years are spent, it seems looking forward, but as we grow, we realize that only by understanding those successes and failures of the past, shall we be able to see the future with a vision of maturity and understanding. And so, in the years to come, when these pages bring back memories of bygone days, this Tar-bo-rah will serve as a reminder of our successes and failures, the glory of a well-planned Jr.-Sr., the football game we almost won.

Thus as surely as night follows day, today will become yesterday and then slip from our memories. We, the 1964 Tar-bo-rah staff, sincerely hope that we have captured in these pages, moments which might otherwise have been lost in the gray obscurity of the past.

Foreword

Curriculum

In order to face tomorrow with confidence and understanding, each student must be ready to meet and take advantage of all opportunities offered to him. The variety and quality of the curriculum offered at Tarboro enable the student to obtain invaluable preparation for career, college, or the home.

For a Complete Study of Foreign Language . . .

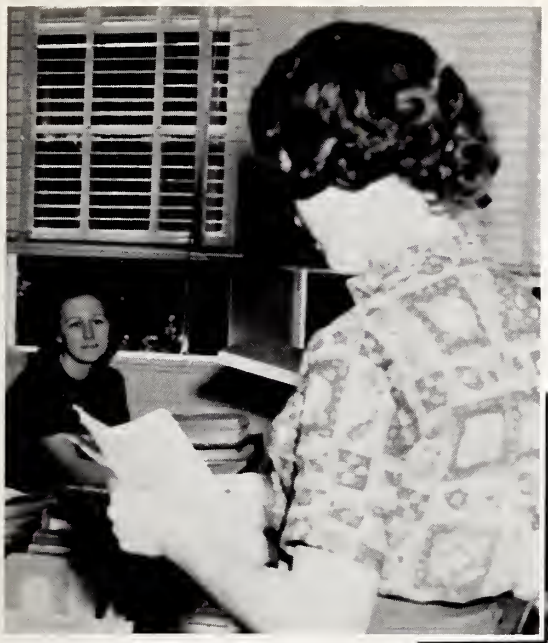
These French II scholars are diligently working on classwork for Miss May.

French III students eagerly await the Punchline of one of Mrs. Highsmith's anecdotes. It is rumored that they never speak any English!



Mrs. Harris's English class utilizes the art of public speaking as they read their themes.

David Lanier practices the skill of conducting a panel discussion.

. . . Sufficient English Background Is Essential

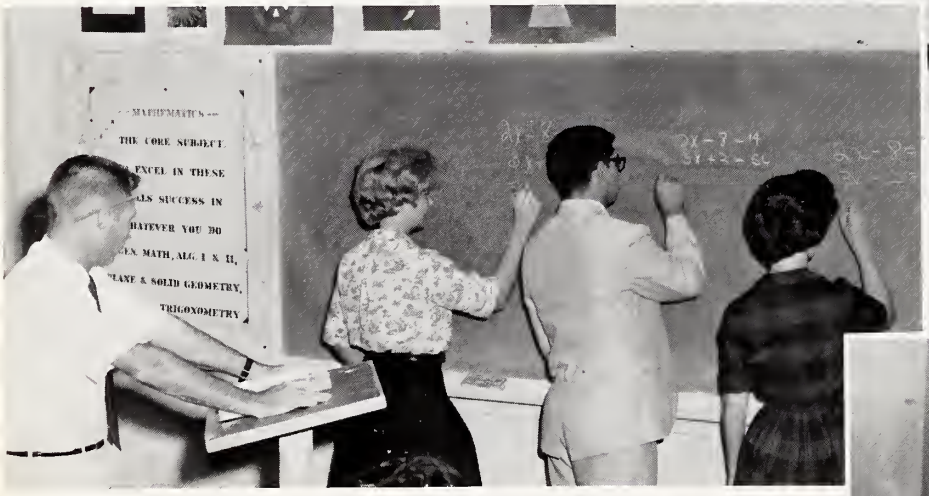
Mrs. Ruffin's Senior English class set the sleep-walking scene of the classic "Macbeth."

These students are checking papers while others at the board are diagramming sentences.

Mathematics —

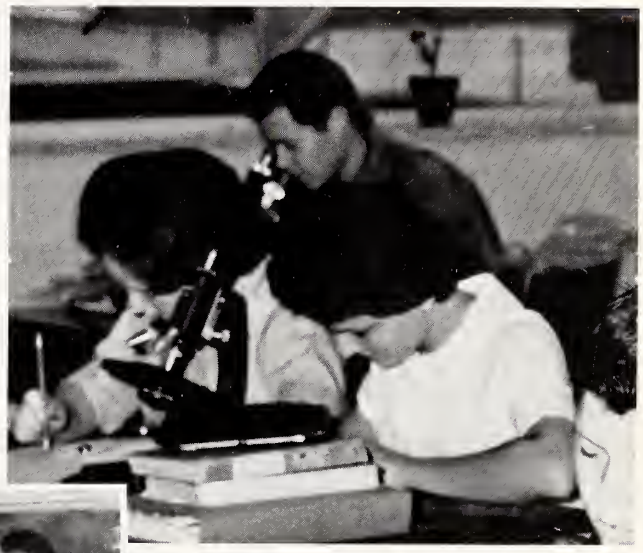
"Any questions? If you don't mind, take out paper and pencil," is a well-known quote in Mr. Tripp's geometry class.



Mr. Collins' Algebra II students solve these problems that just wouldn't work out last night.

Mr. Allen's Business Math class appreciate the practical application of this useful subject.

The Language of Science

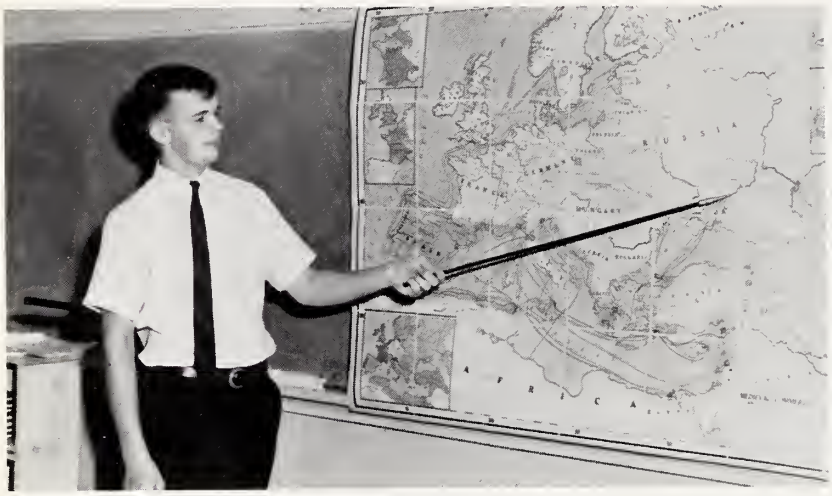


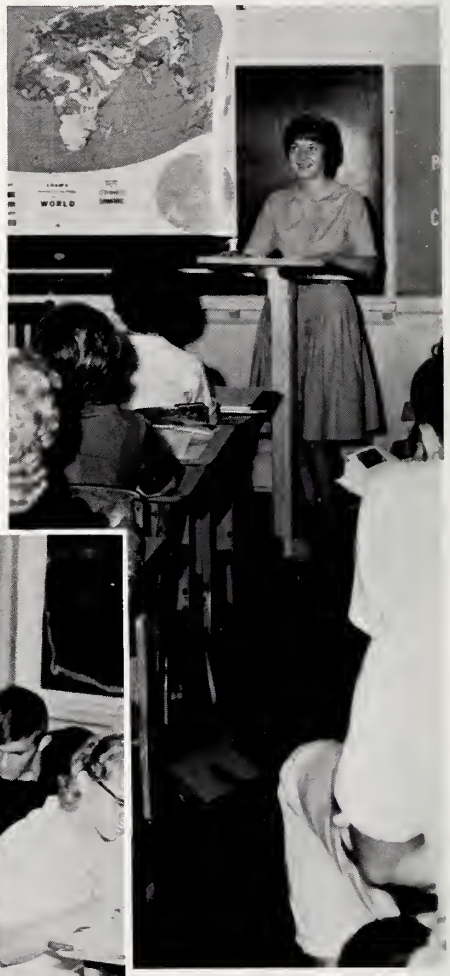
Biology students explore life in its simplest forms and record their findings as all good students do.

"Louis, Please, I'd rather do it myself!" We seldom find Physics class so unorderly.

Chemistry students take advantage of Tarboro's excellent laboratory facilities.

Social Studies — The Past, Present, and Future





Well, Professor Bushy Sparrow, what's so interesting about Russia? World Geography is a newly acquired curriculum at T. H. S.

This is an example of the solemn-minded Government students doing classwork.

What startling event in U. S. History could have aroused such amazement? Juniors next year will be anxious to find out since U. S. History is a required subject.

Welcome to the Business World

This class is in deep concentration. Nothing can disturb them now but Mrs. Weeks' bell!

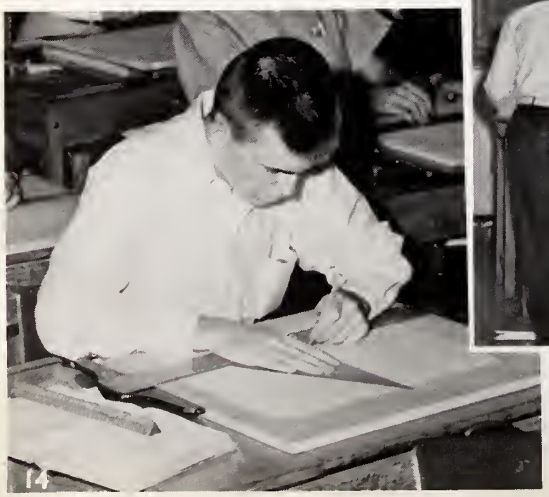
Peering over Judy Harrell's shoulder we can get a glimpse of the work involved in bookkeeping.

"Ish" What? It's hard to comprehend some of this shorthand lingo!

Mr. Watkins explains the use of one of the machines in the shop to an Industrial Arts student.

Making metal objects is a challenge to this student. He seems to be enjoying himself immensely.

Industrial Arts



Shh--Genius at work! Completing an accurate drawing requires much time and skill which is acquired in this mechanical drawing class.

These girls seem to be putting make-up on Martha Milliard, but whatever they're doing they appear to be enjoying it.

Home Economics

Come girls, this is no laughing matter! We discover the special art of Patsy Worsley. The results are always strictly by the Nurse's Aid book.

Library Science

The students who take Library Science do various tasks in the library as they learn more about its operation. One of these tasks is helping other students to find specific books in the library.

In an atmostphere of tranquility students may come to study or to do research work during their study halls.

Band

Mr. Fowler listens attentively to determine what measures need to be taken to tune an instrument with first clarinet Butch Best. This is a common scene in the everyday life of any band.

With much practice and an attitude of concern our band continues to improve and progress.

Choral Music

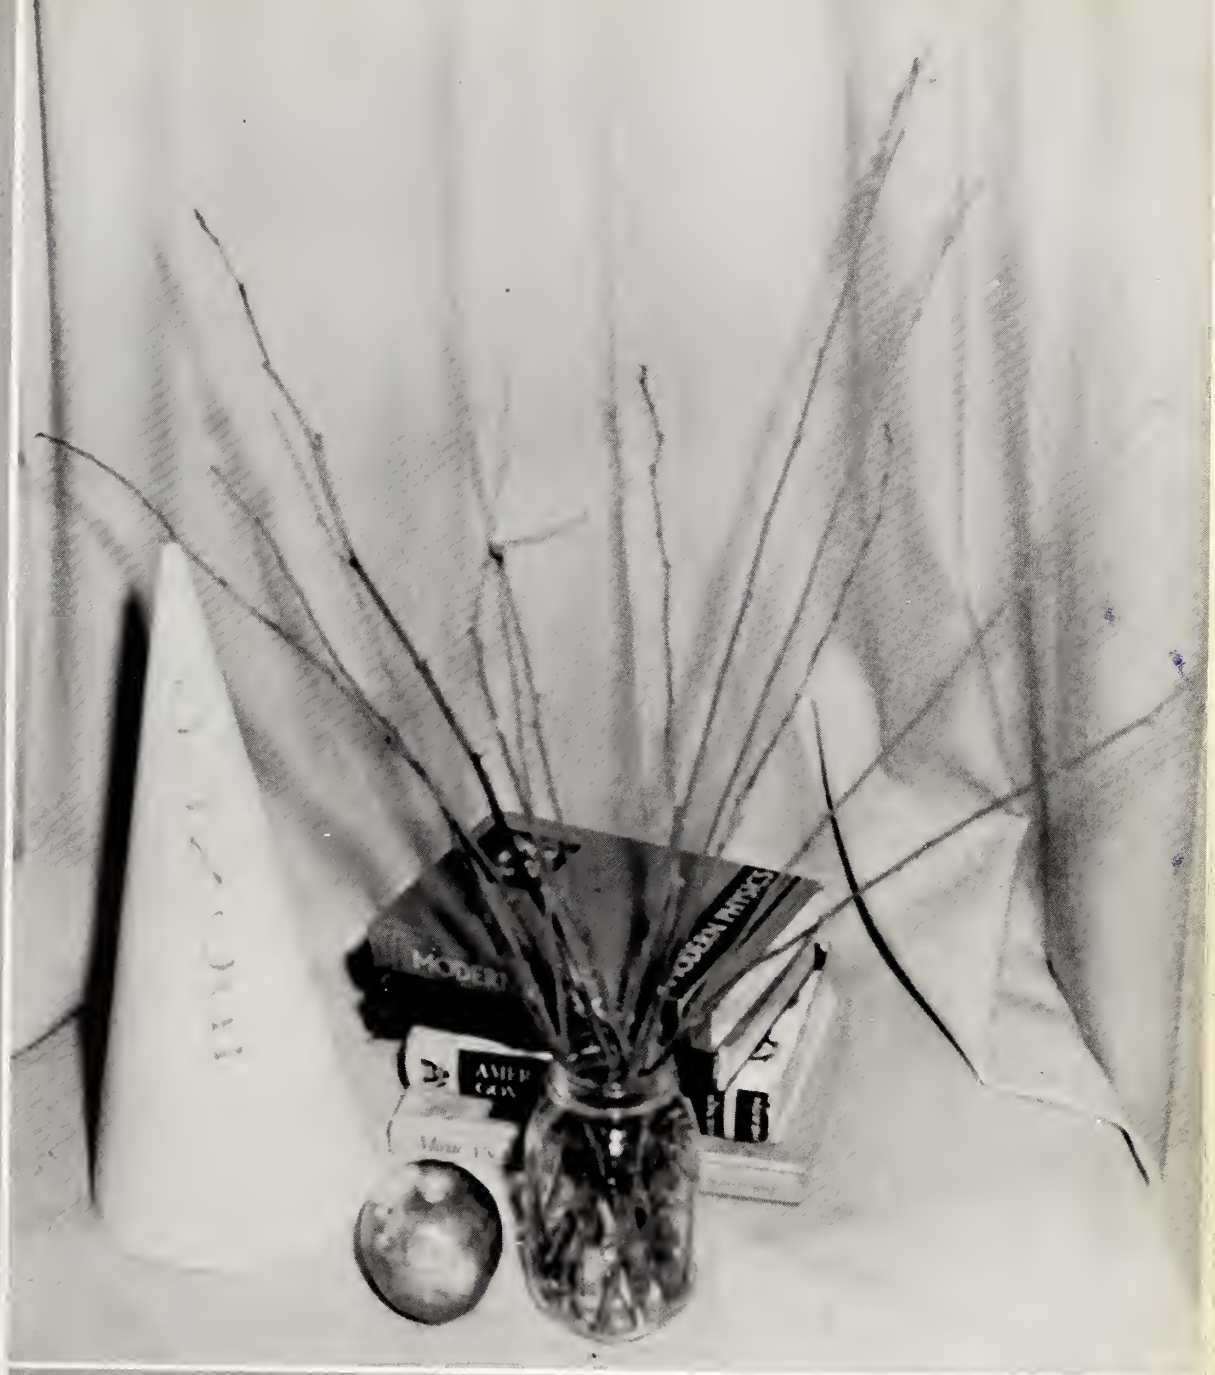
Students under Mrs. Fountain's direction, struggle to learn the fundamentals of the art of singing. As we well know, a break may be taken from their strenuous work at times.

Physical Education With Vigor

Janet Rawls trips off the fifty-yard dash as part of her physical fitness test.

Tarboro has incorporated the Kennedys' game. Here, some physical education students participate in the presidential sport, touch football. Easy boys; we wouldn't want you to get hurt!

A future olympic star? Only Mrs. Smith knows for sure. Safe landing, Nancy Smoot!

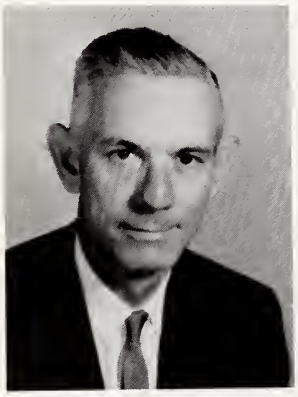


Administration and Faculty

The success of the student rests at the outset on the faculty's shoulders. With the dedicated guidance of the administration and the helpful assistance of the staff, a student is armed with the essentials to prepare for a life's work.

Tarboro Board of Education

The Tarboro City School Board of Education works diligently every year in securing what they feel are the most needed measures to improve the school system.



C. B. MARTIN

Superintendent

MR. MARTIN: Improvements in the facilities and standards of our school have been a result of the efforts put forth by Mr. C. B. Martin, Superintendent of Tarboro City Schools.

Administration

Principal

MR. FORREST: Through the active interest and diligent work of Mr. O. H. Forrest, Principal, the administrative business of Tarboro High School is executed with speed and accuracy.

Secretary

MRS. BETTY WINCHESTER: Serving as secretary to Mr. Forrest, Mrs. Winchester occupies one of the vital positions in the administration.

Guidance

MISS WHITEHURST: Miss Grace Whitehurst serves our school in the capacity of guidance counselor. She helps the student plan his courses of studies in school and provides valuable assistance as the graduate prepares to enter college or a profession.

As it will, time passes and Tarboro High School ushers a new class down the aisle to the left front rows of the auditorium. This is the class of '64. Behind it lies three years of crowded activities in and out of the classroom. Before it lies a year of hard work and intensive study. The hard work entails those tasks which hopefully will result in the long-awaited trip to Washington. Instensive study will usher the class of '64 for the last time to its honored position in the auditorium for graduation. There the class of '64 will join the other classes which time has led from this place.

and to Their Swift Return to Heaven

These students are possibly Freshmen! They have that dreadfully discriminating look about them! But they will find, as time goes on, that THS will become as familiar to them as they will to it.

Student Lif

Academic work in the classroom consumes most of the students' time. However, the many hours thus spent blend into one hazy memory of books, term papers, and tests. Those activities beyond the books form unique, vivid memories, for it is outside the classroom that poise, wit, and personalities combine to make Tarboro High School what it is.

The Usual Day of T.H.S. Students

"I'm Going Back to School."

Back to the rat race!

Football players diligently polish their shoes before game.

All students utilize their study halls to the fullest advantages!?

"Sweet Nothin's"

Bells ring, locker doors slam, feet shuffle down the hall. These are the sounds which fill the school day. Glimpses of the crowded hall and quiet classroom join with these noises to produce the full effect of a day at Tarboro High School.

"Monster Mash."

"Come on, Everybody, Do the Locomotion."

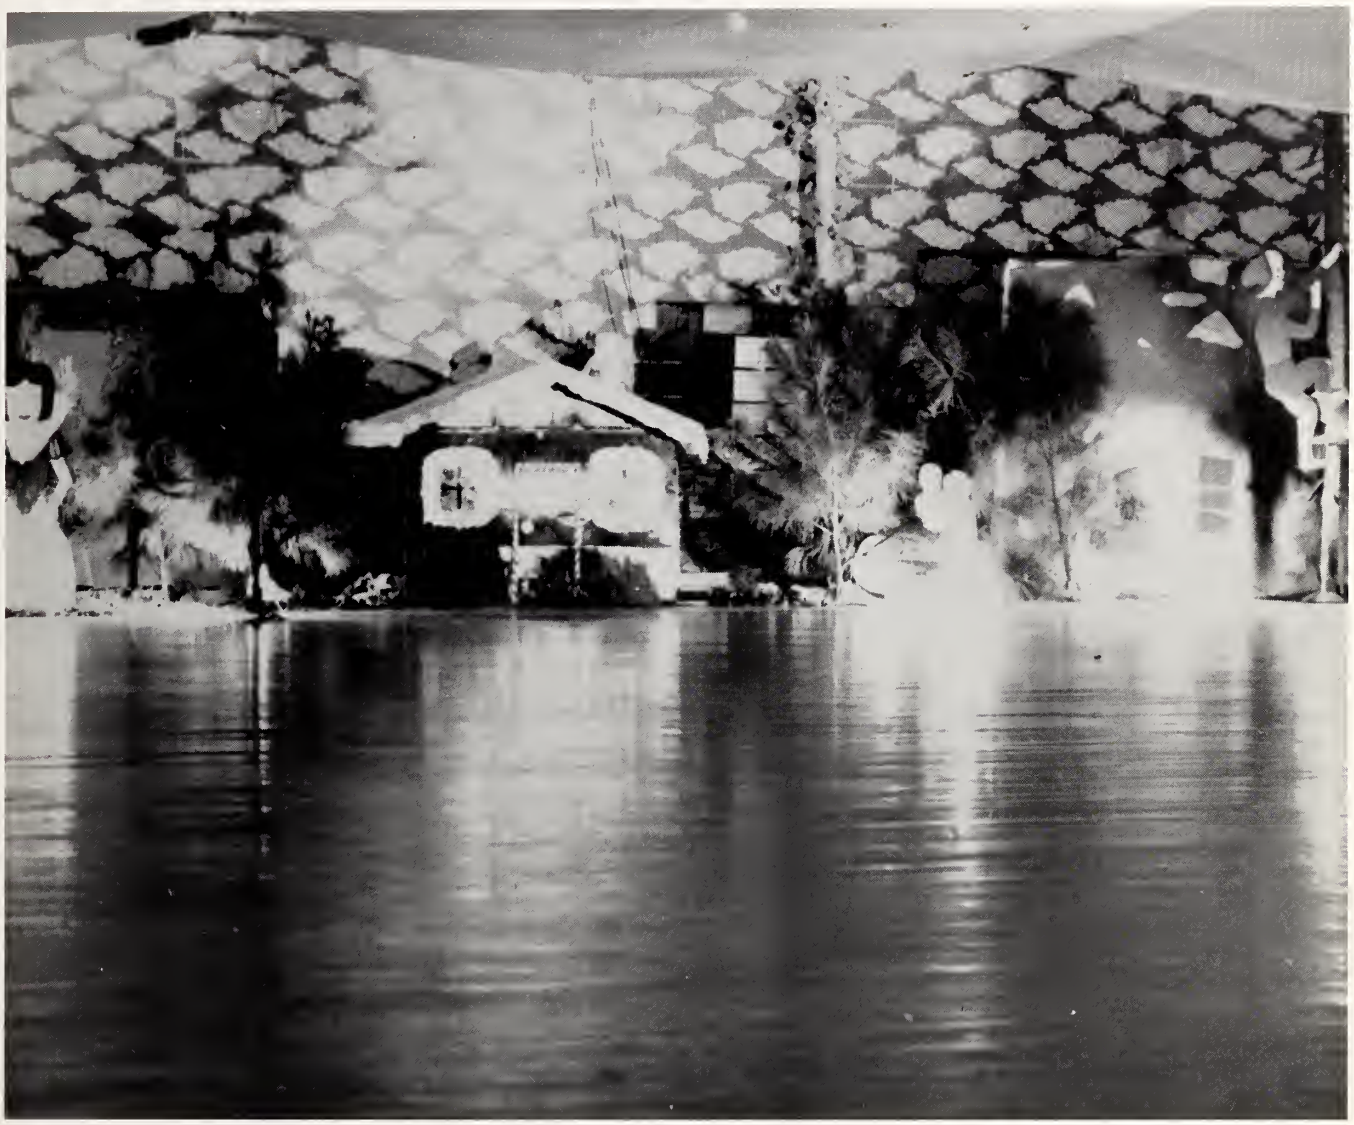
Business of '63 Spring

These are the winners of the 1963 Science Fair.

Each student who wishes to vote for student council officers must first register.

Voting is done by Secret Ballot.

Fantasyland



Creating a beautiful and successful Junior-Senior Prom requires difficult but satisfying work.

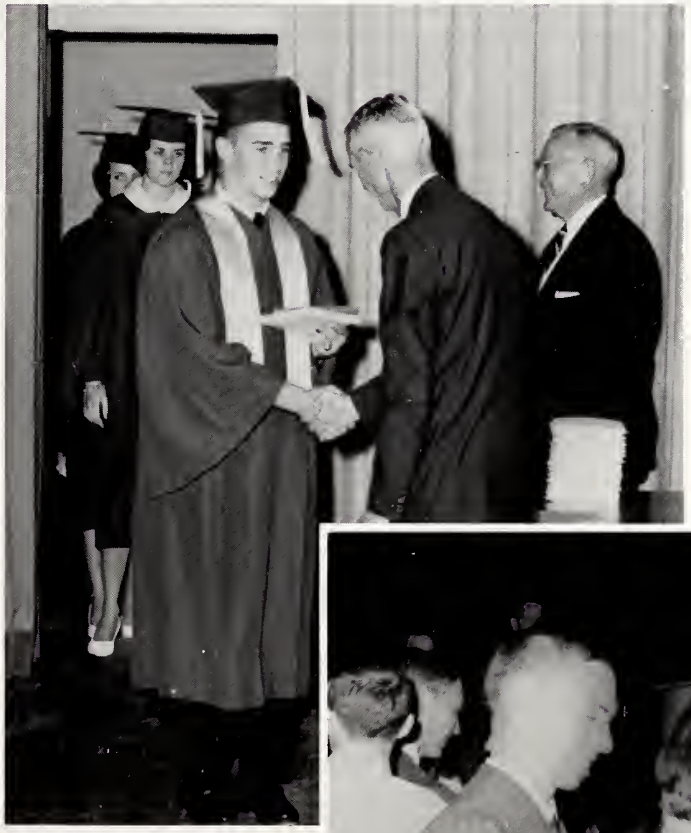
Seniors, All Aboard!

Each year the Senior Class visits Washington. It is a trip to be well remembered.

Last year the Junior members of the National Honor Society gave a tea in honor of the Senior Class.

The Finale

Seniors make their last farewell at Class Night.



Graduation marks a beginning for all. For many, it is the beginning of college, of marriage, of work - of adulthood.

"You don't have to be a baby to cry!"

1963 Marshals

Marshals for the Class of '64 were Sallie Carlisle, Chief; Barbara Check, Phyllis Deal, Carolyn Dew, Carla Weaver, Roy Lynch, Larry Hathaway, and Jerry Worsley. They were chosen, as usual, by scholastic rank.

Girls' State

Girls' State is sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary. This year, Sallie Carlisle and Barbara Check were chosen the representatives from Tarboro.

Boys' State

Herbert Brown, Billy Thigpen, Louis Jones, and Danny Piland were the four boys sponsored by the American Legion to participate in Boys' State from Tarboro.

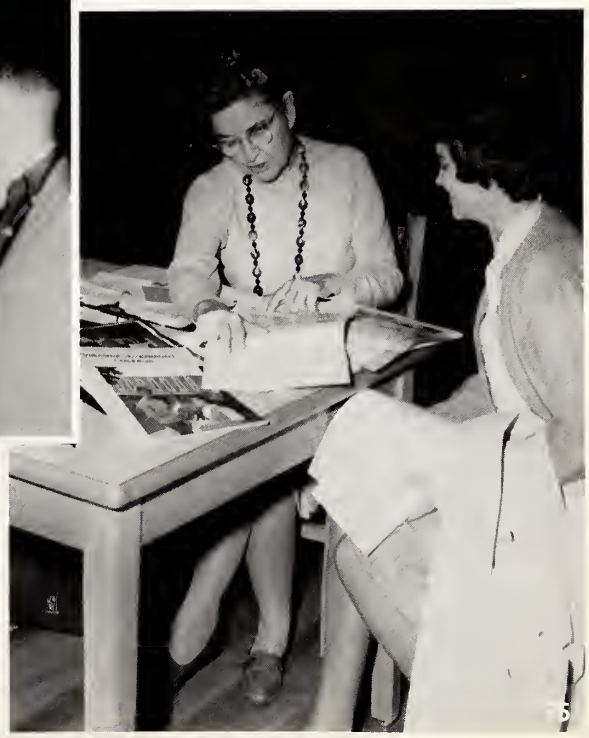
From Summer to Fall to School

Carla Weaver added to the prestige and spirit of T. H. S. by painting a tiger head in the center of Bass Gymnasium.

On the first day of school students pour into the auditorium with fresh enthusiasm!

Each year the program on the first day of school consists of installing the new student council officers who were Herbert Brown, President and Virginia Turner, Vice-President this year.

Students observe Veteran's Day with a program sponsored by the American Legion.



College representatives come each year to talk to students about college plans and advertise their various colleges.

Initiations and Inductions

These students were tapped into The National Honor Society in a dignified ceremony.

Candles representing Scholarship, Character, Leadership, and Service are lit by Phyllis Deal.

"A Little Bit of Soap" will wash away the messy results of the Key Club initiation.

These boys have met the required 85 average to become voted into the Key Club.

T. H. S., We Love You!

Occasionally, Pep Rallies are held to show the Tigers that the Student Body is behind them.

"Tarboro Tigers, (Wooo oooh!)"

A special pep rally is held during homecoming week to introduce the candidates running for Queen.

"ALL ABOARD FOR THE TIGER TRAIN!"

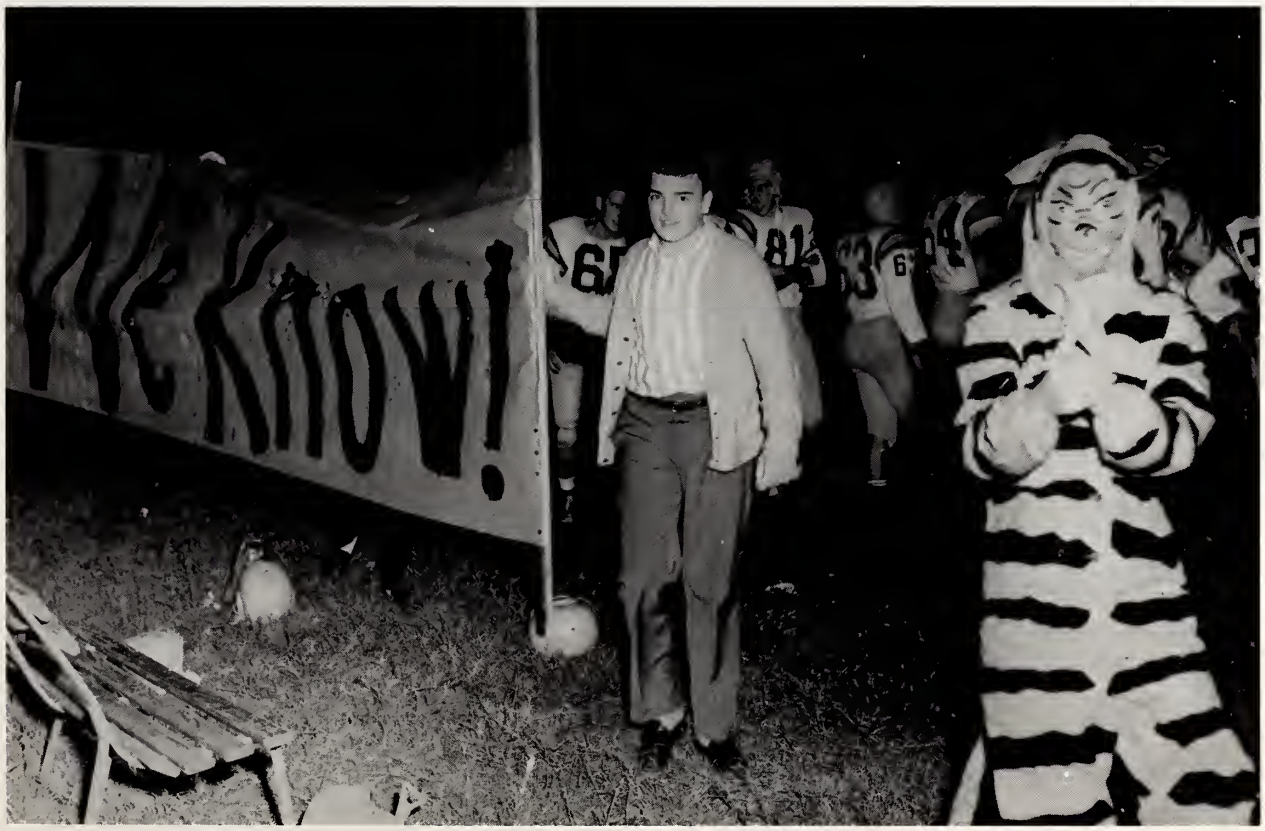
All of the various clubs and organizations at T. H. S. enter floats in the Homecoming parade. The winning float is awarded $5.00.

Is an Exciting Time

These girls don't appear nervous as they appear in front of a stadium packed with spectators.

This is a night of tension and relief and joy for the lucky homecoming queen.

Spirit of the team and the fans is intensified at the homecoming game.



Homecoming Queen of 1963

Miss Donna Beach

Queen's Court

Sandra Sanderson, Thelma Robbins, Jerry Whitley, Barbara Check, Deborah Wells, Carolyn Braddy, Phyllis Deal, Cathy Bradshaw, Nancy Smoot, Donna Beach, Gilda Coley, Dorothy Norfleet, Elizabeth Mahler, Carla Weaver, Sallie Carlisle, Sally Gray Bailey, Cynthia Simmons, and Nancy Carter composed the 1963 Queen's Court.

Royal Court

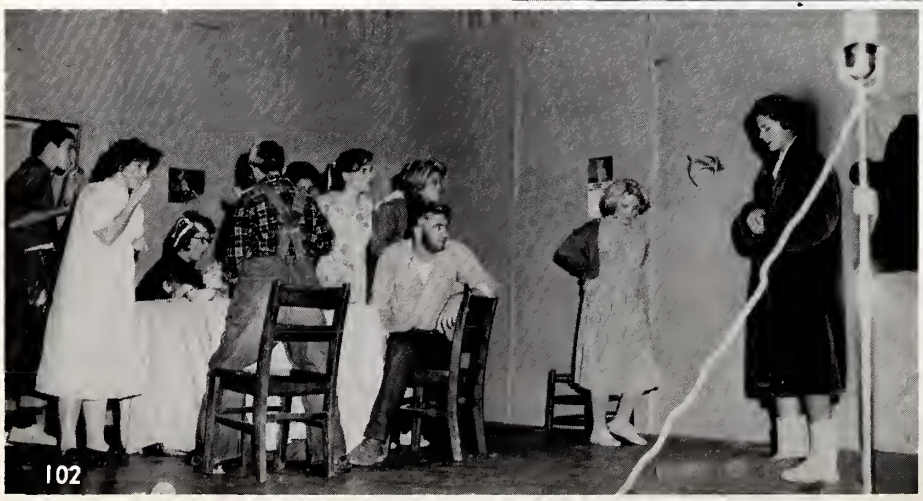
EDGECOMBE CO. MEMORIAL LIBRARY
TARBORO, N. C.

Headin' for a Weddin'

This year the play given by the Senior Class was a hilarious three-act comedy entitled "Headin' For A Weddin'."

"The least I can do is give him a bone."

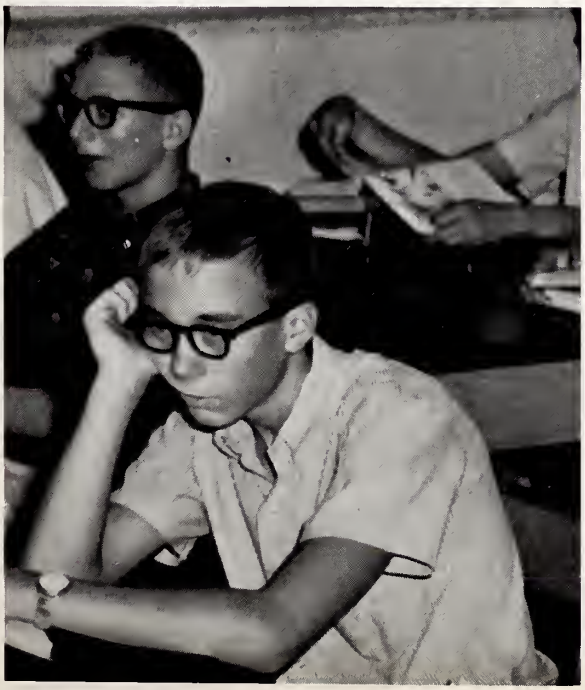


"She's one of them city slickers. Yep! shoes and everything!"

Exam Week

One day during exam week, a hot chocolate break was awarded the students between examinations.

"Is it? Or isn't it the higher priced brand? Only your cook knows for sure!"



"To pass or not to pass - That is the question!"

Christmas at T.H.S.

Each Christmas, students at T.H.S. give food and money to the maids and janitors in appreciation of their fine service.

Latin students contribute to the Christmas program by singing carols in Latin.

This year the T.H.S. Band entertained the student body with a short Christmas concert.

Annual Tarboro Christmas Parade

Homecoming Queen, Donna Beach, and her royal court ride on the master float in the Christmas Parade.

Each year the T. H. S. Homecoming candidates are asked to participate in the Christmas parade. They ride on the floats and the children of the town ride with them.

Sallie Carlisle and Elizabeth Mahler reign on this beautiful float.

In Memoriam

John Fitzgerald Kennedy

To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance; . . . . . a time to keep silence, and a time to speak; A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.

Organizations

The academic days spent at Tarboro High School are brightened and diversified by the opportunity for participation in various clubs and extracurricular activities. Such activities extend the student's life and experience far beyond the classroom. By participation in the club programs available, the student is able to better identify himself with others who share his interests and abilities. The goals strived for and achieved will make wonderful memories as the years pass; but the relationship formed during the enjoyable hours spent in these activities will remain realities throughout his lifetime.

The Annual Staff . . .

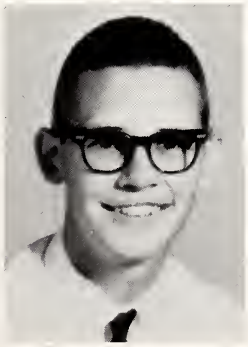
. . . Is Always Hard at Work

This year, for the first time, the annual staff presented a "drama" written by Barbara Check to promote the sale of annuals. Billy Thigpen and Sallie Carlisle are shown in one of the most dramatic skits of the play. Robot George White makes a grand entrance!

It takes brains to write copy!

A big part in publishing a first-annual is accurate and neat typing. The typists are Peggy Denny, Nita Collins, and Karen Smith.

Jay Stallings, the photographer of the annual staff, is constantly summoned for duty never ending.



Herbert Brown, President; Virginia Turner, Vice-President; Donna Beach, Secretary; Sandra Sanderson, Treasurer; Miss Grace Whitehurst, Advisor.

Sports plays an important part in the development of the individual. At T. H. S. the development of the individual goes hand in hand with the education of the individual. Our baseball team is an example of this. They won only two games last year but the amount of character built on that diamond is immeasurable. The spirit and pep exhibited by the team won them many admirers if not games.

Hall gets set to blast one.
